MESSAGE FROM BOARD

Summer is here, well, officially on 20th of June. Graduation is over so the wind should be dying down making it the perfect time to enjoy some golf, tennis, and pickleball. And if you just want to come and hang out with some friends and family in the Bunker, that's good too. Mark has been serving delicious lunches and dinners. His Mother's Day brunch was scrumptious. Remember, the Club is open to the public so please bring your friends and family and enjoy yourselves.

Also, take the time to read the emails from Karen listing all the fun events at the Club in June. There is truly something for everyone: poker night, bunco, which is a hoot, karaoke, there's a Sip and Paint on 13th of June, you get 2 free cocktails and appetizers while you enjoy some fun. There's a French Open Social on the courts 8th of June, come out and make some new friends! In June, there's Taco Tuesday each week, $2.50 per taco and $5.00 margaritas. How do you beat that? There's a Father's Day BBQ on 16th of June. What better way to spend time with your dad? And, of course there's Book Club on the third Wednesday of each month. For the first time, there's Steak Night in the Bunker on 20th of June with a special menu and wine tasting. If you're not on the email list, call Karen at 947-3142, EXT 805 and add your email so you don't miss out! Don't forget to tell your friends.

With summer here, please be safe. Wear sun protection make sure you avoid areas where the snakes come out, especially you golfers!

Enjoy,
Debra Erdman

Cinco De Mayo Tournament

May 5, 2024 we participated in the Cinco de Mayo Mix Scramble. Chad Pickrel did an outstanding job running this tournament. When you checked in, you were required to spin the wheel to select two clubs. The choice of your remaining three clubs were up to the individual. The challenge of five clubs and the cold and windy conditions made it a difficult day. The result ... first place-Justin Renaux and Amy Thompson net 65. Second place- Ray Munoz and Don Thompson net 67. Third place Rob Hargrave and Diane Wachsmuth net 68. Thank you all for participating in this fun filled tournament. I would also like to thank Markie, Jose and the entire staff for the outstanding service. The next tournament will be The Happy Gilmore Open on June 22, 2024. Mark your calendars.
