MESSAGE FROM BOARD

Can you believe it's already July? With graduation season behind us, we're hoping the winds start to calm down—at least that's what they say!

If you missed June's karaoke night, you missed a great time! We had some fantastic young performers who added a fresh energy to the evening. And as always, Mark's Friday night dinners were a hit. If you haven't joined us yet, it's time to get off the couch and come enjoy the fun!

We're thrilled to see some new golf couples out on the course. Don't be shy—invite them to sign up for our laid-back and fun-loving golf tournaments. Speaking of which, our annual Fourth of July Tournament is coming up soon. It's always a great event and we'd love to see you there!

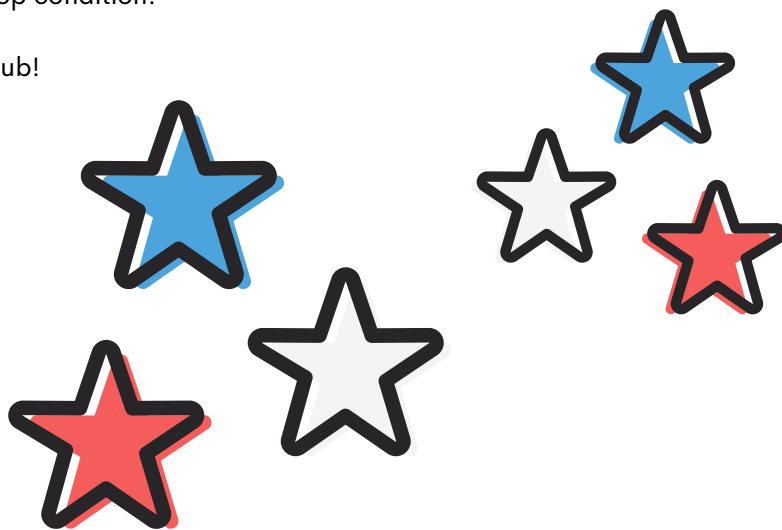

The men recently wrapped up the annual Schaffer Tournament with a strong turnout and some new faces in the mix. If you're unsure about tournament eligibility or have any questions, just give the office a call—they'll connect you with the right contact.

Over on the courts, Kirk, our tennis pro, is hosting tennis and pickleball camps for the kids. It's a wonderful opportunity to introduce your children to new sports and help them make friends along the way.

Lastly, we appreciate your patience as we work through some issues with the sprinkler timing system. We're actively addressing it and are committed to keeping the course in top condition.

Wishing you a fun and relaxing July—see you around the club!

Debra Erdman
Vice President
